

THE TIMES.

PUBLISHED SATURDAYS.

J. E. BURGHER, JR., Editor

30 cents per annum.

Entered at the post-office at Spoutspring, Ky., as second-class mail matter.

SPOUTSPRING, KY.
Saturday, Dec. 19, 1896.

Our motto: A home made paper.

LOCAL BREVITES.

Christmas next week.

Burgher sells Dry Goods cheap.

Lookout for Santa-Claus Thursday night.

Joel Gravett went to College Hill Tuesday.

George Gravett went to Winchester Sunday.

Go to W. R. Cassidy's, Clay City, for clothing.

W. E. Hefin has been painting his residence this week.

Mrs. Mary Curtis is visiting relatives and friends at Winchester.

We have had a right smart touch of winter the past few days.

Dudley Hall severely cut his hand last Saturday while chopping wood.

The little daughter of J. W. McKinney, of Winchester, died on Tuesday.

To insure a booming trade, advertise in the Times.

For stoves, hardware and queensware, go to W. R. Cassidy's

Save 20 per cent by buying your winter boots of J. E. Burgher, jr.

Born, Friday, December 11, to H. F. Christopher and wife a girl.

J. J. Curry traveling salesman, of Winchester, was interviewing our merchants Tuesday.

J. E. Burgher pays 12 c per dozen for eggs, and the top market price for all kinds of produce.

Died, December 14, Mrs. Caroline Anderson. The remains were buried at Jackson's Chapel on Wednesday.

Miss Esa McKinney, accompanied by her brother, Mosie, returned from a visit to relatives at Winchester on Wednesday.

Will Crim, of Clark county has moved on the Lee Sams farm near town, Troy Pucket who lived there last year has rented a place of Johnston Harris.

Grant Elkin was in town Thursday and informed us that he was the proud father of a 7lb. boy which arrived at his place Saturday, December 12. Grant is all smiles and says he is now papa.

John Fluty, of Iron Mound, was transacting business here yesterday.

Born, to the wife of Herbert Heflin, of Montgomery county, last week a son.

Misses Halie and Lucy Clark, of Vaughn's mill, were shopping in town Tuesday.

R. W. Smith, traveling salesman, of Irvine, was taking orders from our merchants yesterday,

Silas Abney, of Lee county, staid over night here Tuesday while on his return home from his brother's at Kidville.

Next weeks issue will be the day after Christmas and we have other business which we expect will occupy our whole time, and for this reason we will not attempt to print any paper next week, but will appear again on the next regular day of publication.

We wish each and all our readers a Merry Christmas and Happy New Year.

The Sick.

Mrs. Martha A. Wright has a very bad case of Pneumonia fever. Dr. Ray is the attending physician.

Mrs. Nancy Crow continues very ill at her home near Kimbrell's Chapel.

D. McKinney has recovered from a severe attack of the grippe, and was out in town two days of this week.